

Current BMSc student has paper shortlisted for "Art in Science Award"

Nicholas Cotton to present at ESM2012 in Aalborg, Denmark

Fri, 25/05/2012 - 10:19

Nicholas Cotton, a current BMSc student in Applied Orthopaedic Technology at the Institute of Motion Analysis & Research (IMAR), submitted a research project to ESM2012 - an internationally renowned biannual meeting held this year in Aalborg, Denmark. Nicholas' paper, titled Cycling & impotency: the way forward!, supervised by Professor Rami Abboud was one of 6 papers shortlisted by an internationally renowned faculty of biomechanics experts. More information about ESM2012 can be found here...

▲ Skip to Top

Undergraduate

Why Study at Dundee?

MBChB

Intercalated Degree \(BMSc\)

Admissions

International Students

Student Support

Electives

F.A.Q.

Postgraduate

Research Degrees

Taught Courses

Dundee Clinical Academic Track

CPD

Medical Research Institute

Division of Cancer Research

Division of Cardiovascular & Diabetes Medicine

Division of Imaging & Technology

Division of Neuroscience

Division of Population Health Sciences

Core Research Facilities

Medical Education Institute

Centre for Biomedical Sciences & Public Health

Clinical Skills Centre

Cuschieri Skills Centre

Centre for Medical Education

TORT Centre

Centre for Undergraduate Medicine

Information

About

Contact Us

Latest News

Staff

University of Dundee

College of Medicine, Dentistry & Nursing

School Calendar

